It is a recently renovated loft. The loft has a unique environment articulated in space with the living room divided into two parts on several levels.

At the entrance there is a wide open-space living room that consists of a living room, one kitchen, one laundry and one closet. On the ground floor there a room with bathroom, where you can find the door to the open-space. On mezzanine floor of the open space there is a small room with a bathroom that can be used as an office or a small bedroom.

A spiral staircase in the living room allows access to the garden through the large glassed door that lets all beauty of the surrounding garden penetrate the loft.

The dominant element of the whole environment is the staircase connecting two mezzanines through a walkway and it gives a unique style to the loft.
