Historical Florentine-style villa dating back to 16th century, completely restored with a panoramic position with view to Florence is for sale.

The property is composed of: the ground floor with three living rooms, one kitchen, two bathrooms and other rooms; the first floor with three double bedrooms with bathroom, one library and two studios; the second floor with several staffs' rooms, one laundry and one ironing room; and, the third floor with a beautiful terrace with a breathtaking 360 degree view of the hills of Florence.

Outside the building there is a beautiful porch and a cellar dating back to the year 1000.

The property has a park of about 6 hectares and two annexes, one about 120 square meters and the other of about 100 square meters, used for cashiers or as guest houses.

The building has a well that provides water for the needs of the entire complex.
